

Membership Renewal

Tri-State Coalition of Historic Places is a consortium of historic sites in Delaware, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania that are open to the public to interpret the history of their site and region. The Coalition actively works to promote preservation and interpretation of historic sites through education, advocacy, mutually supportive collaborations, technical support, and information exchange. The Coalition's Standards and Practices for Historic Site Administration is currently used by historic sites around the country and overseas. The Tri-State Coalition collaborates with area arts and culture and museum and preservation organizations and tourism bureaus to help strengthen and promote the regions' historic sites.
